

Cheryl Conley Bio

Ms. Conley was educated in South Dakota and came to Texas in 1989.

Ms. Conley has held several positions in Public Relations, Media Management, Marketing and Communications and currently owns and serves as President of KYBY Radio in Magnolia.

In addition, Ms. Conley has volunteered with the Texas Wildlife Rehabilitation Center (TWRC) for seven years where she currently serves as president of the Board. Prior to that she served as Vice President for Friends of Texas Wildlife. Ms. Conley has had a lifelong passion for wildlife and wildlife education. She is a Texas-permitted wildlife rehabilitator and has successfully rehabilitated and released numerous animals.

Ms. Conley is very active in her community and has been recognized by the Keep Montgomery County Beautiful organization for her activism. She actively campaigned to make the placement of bandit signs by companies along our roadways illegal and a state law was eventually passed. Additionally, she played an important role in making bow-hunting illegal in certain subdivisions within Montgomery County.
